

John Crippen, M.Div., M.A., Marriage and Family Therapist

John is a Marriage and Family Therapist living in West Portland, Oregon. He has been a pastor since 1976 and an Air Force Reserve Chaplain since 1985. He is married and has two children. He graduated with a B.A. degree in Christian Education from Pacific Christian College. He received his M.Div. degree from Western Conservative Baptist Seminary and his Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy from George Fox University. He is a part of the Air Force Reserve Command Crisis Intervention Management Team. John served 32+ years as a youth pastor, associate, senior pastor and chaplain in the Air National Guard and Reserve. He has worked with many people of different faith traditions and cultures. He has taught Suicide Prevention and Violence in the Workplace. He has worked with veterans as well as civilians affected by significant traumatic events. John has also been a mental health therapist in a hospital setting. He specializes in grief and loss, building self-confidence, strong marriage and families. John has worked with children, youth and adults in individual, couple and multi-family setting.

Certification

M.A., Marriage and Family
Therapist

Oregon Registered Intern July 2003